

Warsaw woman receives national honor

Posted By Stacey Page on May 24, 2010

CINCINNATI, OHIO – Bob and Aimee Hartwiger, owner of Home Helpers and Direct Link in Warsaw, Ind., recently honored one of their caregivers as the recipient of the Caregiver of the 1st Quarter 2010 for Home Helpers Corporation, the nation's leading senior care franchise specializing in non-medical and personal care and companionship for seniors.

Barbara Perry was recognized for hard work, dedication and service to others. In announcing the award it was noted, "(Perry) is a unique individual who embodies the core values of a Home Helpers Caregiver by touching client's lives each and every day. We are truly honored to have Barbara as a part of our Home Helpers family and are excited to present her with this national award."

Home Helpers offers free in-home consultations and works with individual clients and their families to tailor flexible care plans to meet their specific needs and budgets. Services offered may include companionship, grocery shopping, meal preparation, transportation, assistance with bathing and dressing, medication reminders and light housekeeping. Direct Link® Help At The Touch Of A Button, a 24-hour in-home emergency monitoring system that enables seniors to feel safer and live independently at home for longer than might otherwise be possible.
