

Home Helpers honors local couple

Brian and Damey Heckman, owners of Home Helpers and Direct Link in Canton, received the 2011 Shooting Star Award from Home Helpers, the country's leading senior care franchise.

The award was presented Sept. 21 at the company's national conference in New Orleans.

"Brian and Damey's energy and diligence embodies the Home Helpers mission," said Emma Dickison, president. "The pair has grown all aspects of their business with innovative thinking and strategic planning by continuously increasing employee loyalty and enhancing their clients' experiences."

Home Helpers offers free in-home consultations to tailor flexible care plans ranging from companionship and light housekeeping to personal care and limited medical services. It is affiliated with Direct Link, a national provider of medical alert systems.

For more information on the local Home Helpers and Direct Link, visit www.homecarecanton.com or call 330-455-5440.

Copyright 2011 CantonRep.com. Some rights reserved